

Summer 2012

Dear Readers,

Summer is here and that means spending time outdoors enjoying all that nature has to offer. Walking through the woods, fishing at your favorite fishing spot, swimming at the pool with friends, or playing in your backyard are all great ways to pass your summer days.

But when you need some quiet time what better way to spend it then with a good book? Books can take you places you have never been. With a book and your imagination think about the places you can go. Travel the high seas, visit medieval castles, join the pilgrims on the Mayflower, or learn about how your favorite invention was discovered.

Western author Zane Grey realized the power of words. His books brought to life what it was like for the cowboys, Native Americans, and settlers to live and work in the west.

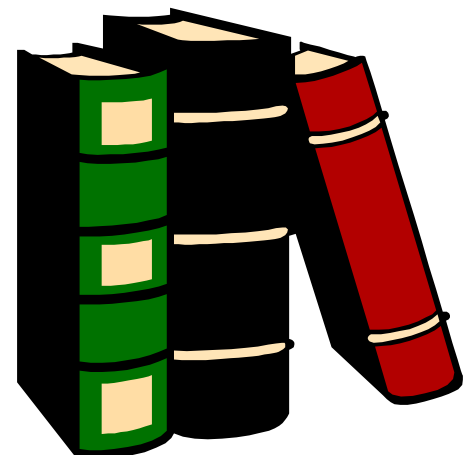

We would like to give you the opportunity to earn a free book with the Zane Grey Summer Reading Challenge. It is easy and fun. All you have to do is:

1. Read 10 books this summer and record them in the Reading Log.
2. Write a book review or design an illustration for one of your summer reading books.
3. Between now and September 3, 2012 bring your completed Reading Log and your book review or illustration to the Zane Grey Museum in Lackawaxen, PA or mail to:

Upper Delaware S&RR
Attn: Summer Reading Program
274 River Road
Beach Lake, PA 18405

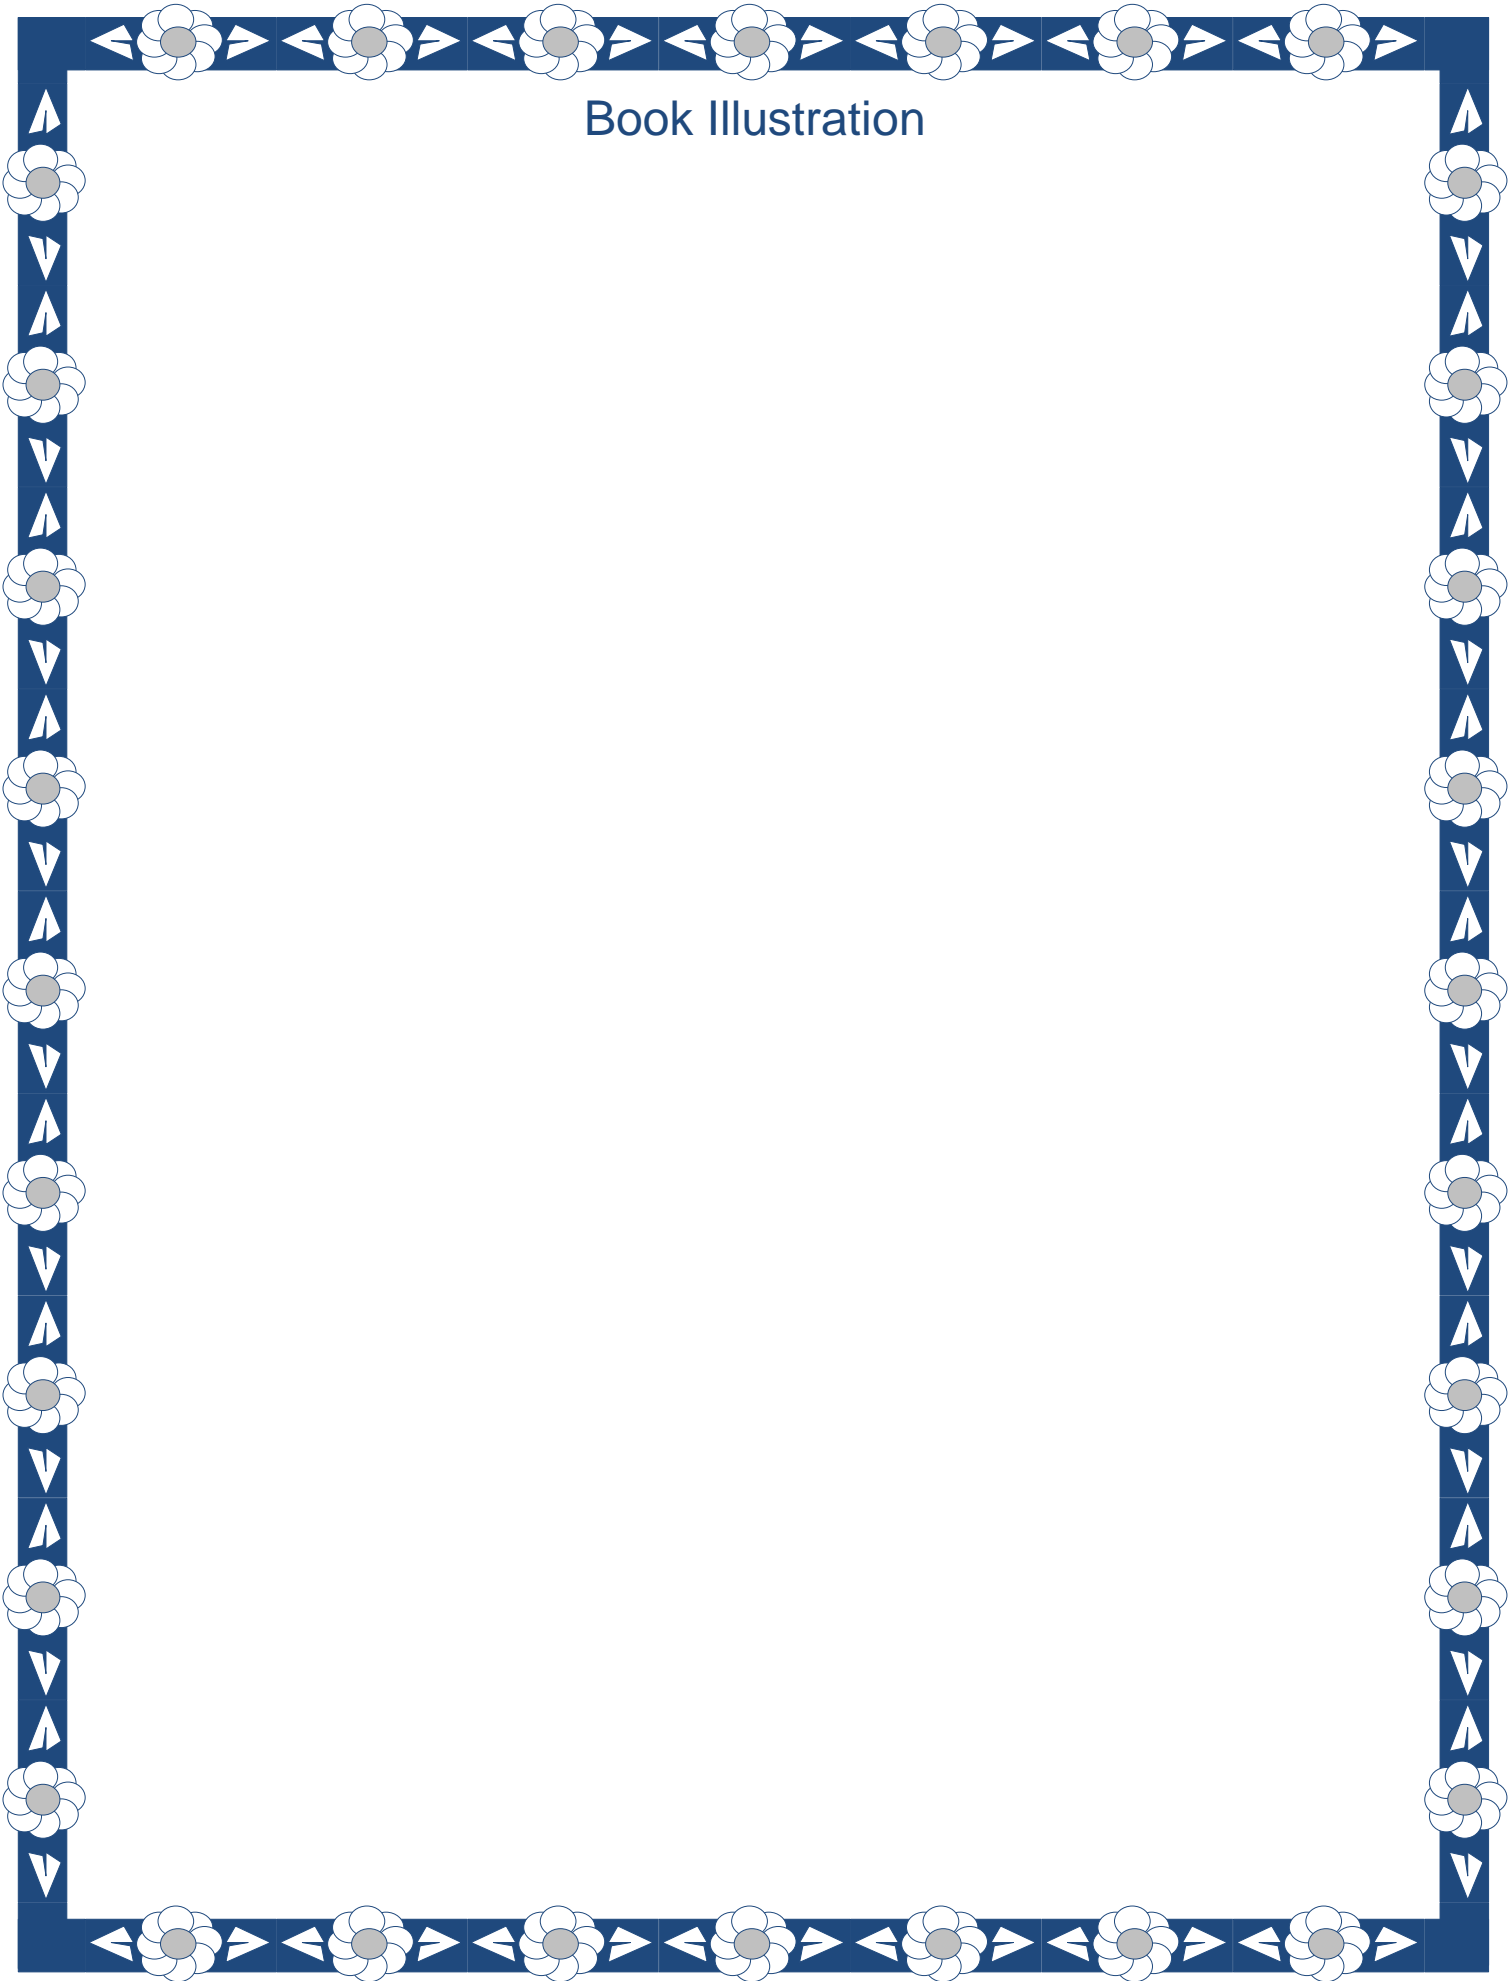

You can pick up your free book or it will be sent to you.

Keep reading!!! We look forward to seeing what you have read this summer.

[illegible][illegible]

Book Illustration

Student Name:

School:

Grade:

Parent /

Parent / Guardian

Guardian Name:

Phone # or Email:

Parent / Guardian Signature:

Title and Author

Favorite part of the story

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.